Online Auction Details

We will start the auction near the 16 day out period, & will end at the advertised time.

We will need:

- 1) Unit Number and description if you like
- 2) Unit size
- 3) As many quality photos as you like, email or text to us
 - a) We recommend you take 1 pic with the unit number, followed by as many pics as you like with different angles, and repeat for the next unit
- 4) A copy of the signed document “Bidder Pickup Form”, where the bidder has picked up the unit and is satisfied. (This is required for you to get paid)
- 5) Your postal address for us to pay you

- After you take photos, it would help if you would put a numbered seal on the unit, not a requirement, but it protects you.
- Please do not enter the unit while taking photos, or for any reason.
- Auction will end at the time we set.
- We post auctions at WaltCadeAuctions.com – Look for the Online Section
- It is the responsibility of facility management to verify the correct photos are aligned online with the correct unit number & description. Auction company will not be responsible for errors. Report discrepancies immediately!
- Please notify us immediately if any unit gets paid. If you wait, a bidder might could have bid on another unit and bids could be lost.
- We will collect from the winning bidder, and instruct them to contact you within 48 hours of auction close to redeem the unit.
- The successful bidder must have a “PAID” receipt from us upon arrival to retrieve unit, otherwise do not release, no exceptions.
- We will deduct our commission and postal mail you a check for the sale less our commission.
- We do not have a minimum fee for online auctions.
- Be aware we put added effort in this procedure, advertising, promotion, etc., so our commission structure may be slightly higher than live auctions.
